The Spa at The Royal Crescent partners with GROUND

In 2025, The Spa & Bath House is delighted to partner with a new product house, GROUND, proudly becoming the only spa in the Southwest to offer their transformative treatments and rituals. Founded by Peigín Crowley, an award-winning wellness expert with over 28 years of experience, GROUND is dedicated to creating self-care experiences that nurture both body and mind.

Handcrafted in small batches in Cork, Ireland, GROUND products are made using 100% natural, vegan ingredients. Each formulation is intentionally blended to support a range of wellbeing needs, from stress relief and sleep support to hormone balance and skin health. Their commitment to inclusive self-care has also led to the creation of specialised treatments for pregnancy, menopause and cancer care.

Embracing the philosophy that self-care is a necessity, GROUND combines the restorative power of nature with an intuitive understanding of the body to deliver deeply therapeutic experiences. We invite you to discover the mindful rituals and nourishing treatments of GROUND at The Spa & Bath House – where wellbeing is always at the heart of everything we do.

We look forward to welcoming you soon.
